

Dominici Massimo CV

(1972) Born. (1996) MD Degree, University of Pavia. (1996) Internship, Institute of Haematology, Vienna University. (2000) Residency in Haematology, Ferrara University. (2000-03) Postdoctoral Research Associate, St Jude Children's Hospital, Memphis. (2003-05) Postdoctoral Fellow, Oncology and Haematology Department, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia. (2005-) Assistant Professor Medical Oncology and Molecular and Cellular Therapies. Principal Investigator Lab. Cell Biology and Advanced Cancer Therapies, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia.

His research has been on stem cell biology and his translational applications in oncology-hematology and regenerative medicine, focusing on hematopoietic and mesenchymal stem cells (MSC). Leads a team of 16 collaborators. Assignee of 12 national and international grants in the last 6 years. Author of about 50 papers, 1 chapter published in 2011 and one book in press 2012. More the 2500 citations. Three patents. Founder and VP of the scientific society Forum of Italian Researcher on Mesenchymal Stem Cells – FIRST. Founder and VP of the biotech company Rigenerand srl. Member of the ASH, AICC, ESCGT, IFATS, ISCT. Treasurer and Member of the Executive Board of the International Society of Cellular Therapy since 2008.